

Multiplier Event Programme

(Facultad de Ciencias de la Educación, Universidad de Málaga)

Reimagining Creative Democracy

Erasmus+ 2018-1-SE01-KA203-039115

Exploring the relation between democracy and diversity in the context of education

February 14nd (Thu.)

20:30 Welcome and Dinner at the typical restaurant El Pimpi (Calle Granada, 62, 29015 Málaga.

<https://www.elpimpi.com/>)

February 15th (Fri.)

9:00 – 9:30 Registration

9:30 – 10:00 Welcome and Opening Ceremony

International Relations Vice-Chancellor, Faculty of Education Dean, Representative of the Educational Authorities, Elvira Barrios (Project member, University of Málaga)

10:00 – 11:00 Lecture: Democracy as an Educational Project: Reconciling Reason and Passion in a Polarized Age

Manuel Arias Maldonado

11:00 – 11:15 The ReCreaDe Project

Per Simfors (Project Coordinator, University of Linköping, Sweden)

11:15 – 11:45 Coffee Break

11:45 – 12:15 Theoretical framework: Re-imagining Creative Democracy

Holger Jahnke (Project member, University of Flensburg, Germany)

12:15 – 13:00 Workshop on Democracy and Education

Carmen Sanchidrián (Project member, University of Málaga)

13:00 – 13:45 European Network of Early Career Teachers (ENECT)

Per Simfors (Project Coordinator, University of Linköping, Sweden) & Silvia Jindra (Project member, Pädagogische Hochschule, Vienna)

13:45 – 14:45 Lunch, coffee and mingling opportunities

14:45-15:45 Democracy and Education: What schools need, what teachers need

Elvira Barrios (Project member, University of Málaga)

Looking back and moving forward: Our projects in the spotlight

Josephine Moate (Project member, University of Jyväskylä)

15:45-16:15 Conclusions

16:15 – 17:15 IES Cartima: Experiences of Democracy at a Secondary School

José M^a Ruiz (Headteacher) and Aurora Carretero (Head of Studies)

February 16th (Sat.)

10:00 – 13:00 Former IP Participants meeting. Sala de Juntas, Facultad de Ciencias de la Educación.